Written as the computer revolution dawned on Canadian society, Computers on the Job introduces the effects of technological change on people in their homes and workplaces. Heather Menzies explains, in clear, nontechnical terms, how the microchip unleashes the full potential of computers, allowing employers to automate many routine jobs and transform others--sometimes for the benefit of employees, sometimes not. She traces the effects of computerization on office work, on the service industry and on traditional blue-collar occupations, forecasting changes that, in many cases, have come to pass. Computers on the Job is a pioneering study of the impact of widespread computer use on Canadian society.

The #1 Canadian and only 100% Canadian-authored Organizational Behaviour text has been thoroughly updated and finely tuned to reflect the continuous changes Canadian organizations face in today's business world. There's a revolution going on in the workplace. Knowledge is replacing infrastructure. Self-leadership is replacing direct supervision. Networks are replacing hierarchies. Virtual teams are replacing committees. Companies are looking for employees with emotional intelligence, not just technical smarts. Globalization has become the mantra of corporate survival. Co-workers aren't just down the hall; they're at the other end of an Internet connection. Canadian Organizational Behaviour (COB) is written with this revolution in mind

Fool @ Forty, is a dream that started seven years ago on the eve of my 40th birthday. Inspiration to put words onto paper began when my stories were heard with rapt attention by the children of my friends during the T.B.Dam M2 Meet. The life experiences we had as kids and later as adolescents are missed by today ' s children who are either glued to the television or sent for tuitions even during their summer
